Grapevine

NEW SEASON: Hello everyone! The Flute Choir of Atlanta Fall 2009 season is here! The first rehearsal will be this coming Sunday, September 13, at John Knox Presbyterian Church from 4:00-6:00 p.m. Kathy Farmer will be emailing some of the parts ahead of time so that we can get familiar with them before Sunday. See her message following.

MESSAGE FROM KATHY: "We're playing a couple of pieces that are going to really take some rehearsing. However, I'm sure that with patience and work, we'll be successful. One is the Brahms Haydn Variations and the other is the 1st 2 movements of the Doran Septet. Also I'm going to send out Mel Lauf's Imaginings. I heard it at convention and loved it! However, it's a booger to read and conduct. We'll go thru it slowly and before too long it will be comfortable. Those pieces will be emailed to you on Wednesday or Thursday so you'll have time to look them over. Every part has some interesting moments!"
